ABOUT TASK TAMERS

My name is Karen Morgan and I am an Organising Consultant. My company, Task Tamers, specialises in helping people to declutter, organise and simplify their homes and lives. This includes helping those people who are perhaps downsizing from their family home into retirement living. I really enjoy helping people organise their lives, whether they need to prepare for a move, declutter or downsize.

My expertise means you can rest easy knowing your important task is in my capable hands. I have plenty of hands-on experience moving, decluttering possessions and other related tasks. I also know how hard these tasks can seem, from deciding what precious things to keep to finding a new home for items you are ready to let go.

Let's tackle your downsizing, decluttering or moving task together.

Kind regards,
Karen

HOME DOWNSIZING & DECLUTTERING, MOVING & ESTATE CLEARANCES

We understand that moving and/or downsizing can be a very emotional and stressful experience. It can also seem overwhelming when you know you need to make some tough decisions about lifetime possessions.

The circumstance of dealing with the home of a family member after their passing is also extremely difficult. In both situations we know that it is unlikely that all belongings can be kept.

Let us work with you in a sensitive manner to:

- Choose how to handle these possessions including what to do with items you no longer want or cannot take with you
- Oversee the packing and storing
- Assist you with the move.
